ECHO PARK FILM CENTER 7th Annual Human Rights Film Festival October 27 & 28, 2007

You are cordially invited to the 7th Annual Human Rights Film Festival, curated and hosted by the Echo Park Film Center. The goal of the festival is to highlight social justice issues too often ignored by the mainstream media. This year, we present an engaging variety of documentary and experimental films that explore themes of home and community.

Basic human rights, including the right to peacefully assemble, the right to religious freedom, the right of political sovereignty and the right to life and liberty, are often taken for granted in Western industrialized nations. In the post-9/11 landscape, issues of human rights are increasingly crucial and closer to home than ever before.

Share your ideas and experience! We urge you to participate and take ownership of the festival, deconstructing the traditional barriers between filmmaker and audience. The films presented here are vehicles to promote thought, discussion, debate and action.

The Human Rights Film Festival is a free event, open to the general public. Seating is limited and available on a first-come basis.
